

■ Smart Senior's Christmas Wish List

20 Things That Make Life Easier (and a Lot More Fun)

COMFORT & HOME EASE

- Heated throw or lap blanket
- Non-slip slippers or gripper socks
- Soft robe or housecoat
- Memory-foam seat cushion
- Humidifier or air purifier

■ Pro Tip: Ask for practical comfort items you'll actually use daily — not more décor to dust.

EASY-TECH HELPERS

- Smart plugs for lamps or coffee makers
- Voice assistant (Alexa, Google, Siri)
- Big-button universal remote
- Video doorbell (Ring, Google Nest)
- Simplified tablet or e-reader

■ Pro Tip: Have your kids install and set up the devices — that's part of the gift.

STAY-INDEPENDENT ESSENTIALS

- Grabber/reacher tool
- Electric jar or can opener
- Cordless or robot vacuum
- Motion-sensor night lights
- Shower bench or grab bar

■ Pro Tip: This isn't about getting older — it's about making life simpler and safer.

CONNECTION & CONVENIENCE

- Tech tune-up day (Wi-Fi, phone, tablet help)
- Streaming subscription (Netflix, PBS Passport, BritBox)
- Photo-sharing frame or digital album
- Cell-phone holder for FaceTime or Zoom calls
- Gift card for local coffee shop or lunch date

■ Pro Tip: Experiences that help you stay in touch with family are priceless.

SERVICES THAT LIFT THE LOAD

- House cleaning or laundry service
- Snow-shoveling or yardwork help
- Meal delivery gift card
- Home maintenance check-up (filters, smoke alarms, etc.)
- Ride service credits (Uber, Lyft, GoGoGrandparent)
- Pro Tip: Asking for services gives your kids a concrete way to help — and saves you physical strain.

MEMORIES & MOMENTS

- Family photo day
- Day trip or concert outing
- Membership (museum, zoo, symphony)
- Custom photo calendar
- Scrapbook or video montage of family moments
- Pro Tip: Shared experiences are gifts that last long after the wrapping paper's gone.

■ Final Thought

You've spent a lifetime giving. This year, let others return the favor — and make life just a little easier in the process.
